To Mr. George Cote:

Because you gave us your time,
And you gave of yourself;
Because you heard our dreams,
Dealt with the practicalities,

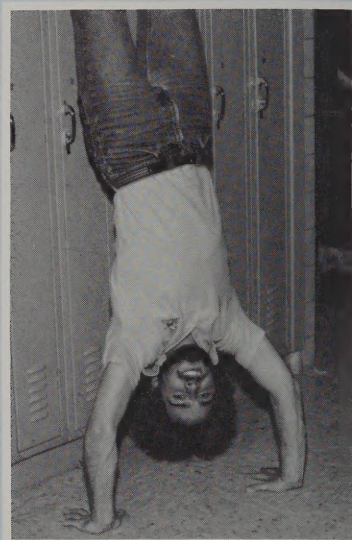

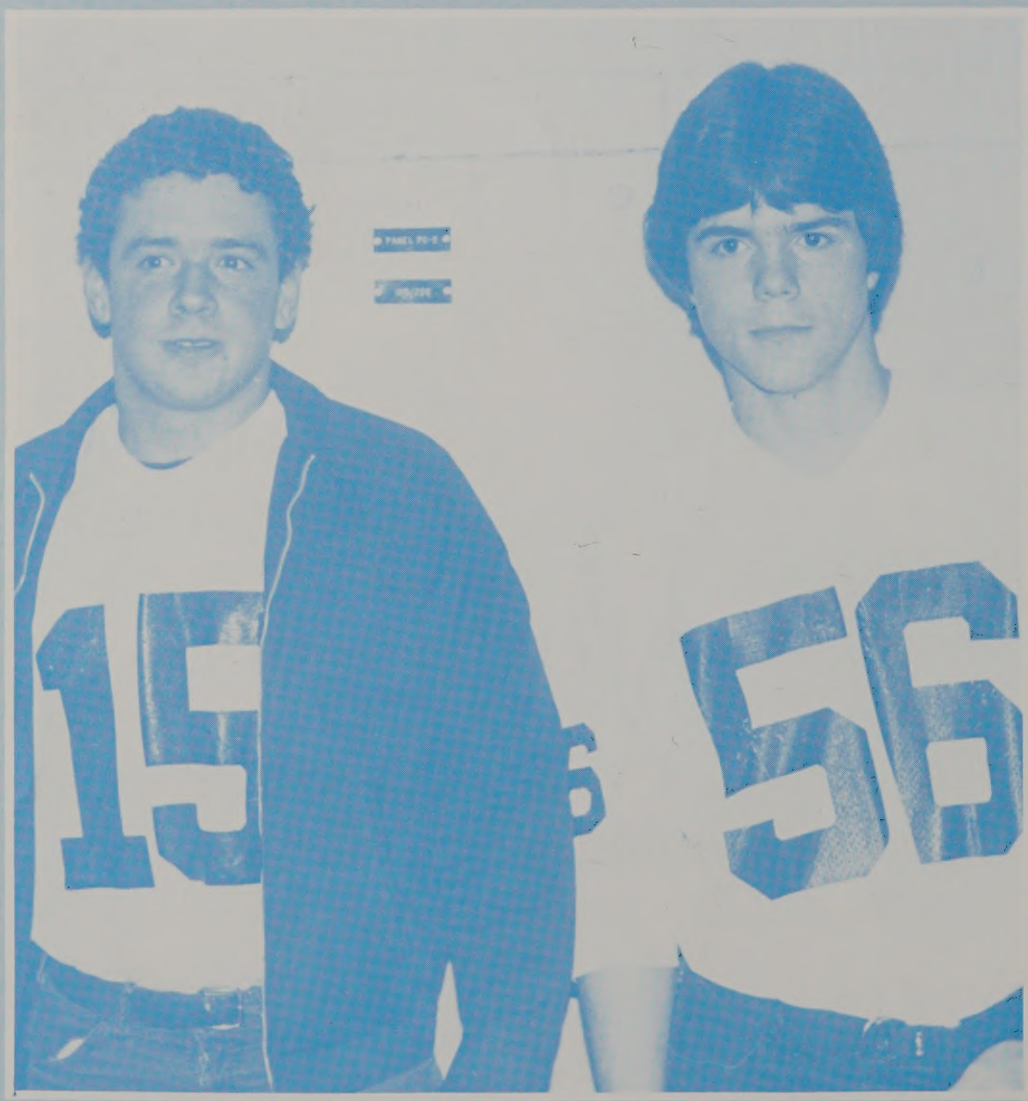

And made them reality;
Because you've always been there
Beside us, and with us;
We give you our thanks, our appreciation, and our love.

Dedication

To Stephen Mills
Our counselor,
Our devoted advisor,
And above all, our friend.

The Class of 1983-

Like a raindrop falling into a pool of water, as it hits the surface it is broken apart and forms a ring; a ring which grows as time passes, a ring which moves farther and farther from the starting point, yet retains its link to the common center - always a circle.

Today we share a common life; we share experiences; we share friends. Tomorrow we share only the memories, as we go our separate ways. We will change, but the past will not. The memories will remain a common center for us always, keeping the circle together - The Class of 1983.

— SENIOR PROJECTS —

History

September 1979, marked the end of another summer vacation and the beginning of a whole new phase of life for both our class and S.H.S. 1983 was the year we were told we would graduate (hopefully), but as Freshmen it was just a number. Little did we know how quickly it would come.

Lynn Henrickson was our president, Jill Pedone Vice-President, Nancy Shepard Secretary, and Kate Flaherty Treasurer—How could we go wrong? Especially with Jane O'Connor, Melissa Wiener, Lisa Leone, Cynthia Potter and Lynn Aspero, as our newly elected student council members.

Shrewsbury High was in a state of confusion. The students (mostly upper classmen) staged a "walk-out" and made the press, bomb scares were not uncommon, the school was badly in need of repair, and the Freshmen Class won both the gym wall decorating contest and the title of "THE MOST SPIRITED CLASS" for the year 1979-1980. We further added to the confusion and our treasury by staging a towel sale. It was our first money making venture and extremely successful. Many of us still have our huge white beach towels displaying our Colonial emblem.

We were established in the framework of S.H.S. and returned for our second year. For our president, we elected Steve Trotto, Vice-President Maria Donato, Secretary Nancy Shepard and Treasurer Kate Flaherty. Our representative to the Student Council were Jane O'Connor, Cathy Swiss, Kelly Holohan, Kim Gauch, and Radha Murthy.

We started our fund raising early in the year with a fairly profitable magazine drive. Our Sophomore year was also marked by sadness. In the fall of 1980, Shrewsbury lost Assistant Principal Ralph Yagian. In the short time that we had known him, Mr. Yagian had become a friend to many of us. He will not be forgotten.

The school was once more in turmoil. Men were on the roof, classes were constantly moved, and hallways were re-routed. The school was being renovated and the addition being built. The larger part of our Sophomore year was spent planning for the future.

Part of that future was our Junior Year. When we entered S.H.S. that September the school had changed. The workmen were gone and the addition was complete and Mr. Ferris was our Headmaster. Class Government headed by Steve Miller as President, Lynn Henrickson as Vice-President, and once again Nancy Shepard as Secretary and Kate Flaherty as our loyal Treasurer. Student Council members were Jane O'Connor, Maura McCarthy, Radha Murthy, Christopher Sullivan, Kelly Holohan, and Marilyn Garcia. Our first activity was the production of the Junior Class Play "The Diary of Anne Frank". JoAnne Gabriella played the leading role of Anne Frank. It was directed by Mr. Jack Feldheimer and Denise Morrissey. They and the rest of the cast and crew including: Lisa Leone, Cathy Swiss, Kelley Wall, Mike Moriarty, Amy Richardson, Alissa Crahan, Randy Belcufine, and Melissa Fohlin, did a superb job. The show was a raging, smashing hit in every aspect, except due to a New England snow storm, -the pocketbook.

In April of that year our class sponsored a Gong Show. Steve Miller's so-called wit and humor was at its best and he made a great M.C. The show provided us with the easiest money we ever earned.

This money was put to good use. For soon after our prom preparations started. The decorating Committee was headed by Lynne Garcia. The decorations, including blue and silver streamers, blue crepe paper, bright white stars, blue and white balloons, had to be rushed- air mail from Wisconsin and arrived in the nick of time. We set to work: Hours and hours spent in the gym, an unlimited amount of trips to Spag's for tape, Steve Danielson's non-stop effort, Kelly Holohan on top of the jungle gym hanging every streamer, the search for the silverball, Mr. Mill's energy, patience, and the labor of many more helped to turn our old gym into a beautiful ballroom, complete with a pond, and azalea bushes. On Saturday night, May 15th we danced non-stop to the music of the Marsels. Our theme song was "Open Arms" and our court was made up of our own class beauties-Lynn Aspero, Jane O'Connor, Lynn Henrickson, Kathy Quinn, and Tracey Powers. It was truly a night to remember and one of the liveliest proms S.H.S. had ever seen.

After recuperating from the prom, our class finished out the year by making quite a profit selling the 1982 Senior left over candy bars. We also attained the distinction of being the class to lose the most credit after being hit the hardest by the new attendance policy.

Another summer passed. And in September of 1982, we were SENIORS! This last year promised to be full of excitement. Mr. Pottle became State Teacher of the Year and many of us appeared on Channel 4's Evening Magazine, our football team, led by Captains Mike Kelly and Ted Shannon, crushed powerful Hudson High, and production of our 1983 yearbook had begun. This proved to be a major undertaking. Guided by Miss Beatrice Tosi, the competent staff did an amazing job. Editor-in-Chief, Lynne Garcia ate, breathed, and slept yearbook. The same class officers returned, with the addition of Joanne Gabiella S.H.S. first female Class Marshall ever! Radha Murthy became president of the Student Council, Jane O'Connor Vice-President and Maura McCarthy Secretary-Treasurer. Marilyn Garcia, Kelly Holohan and Christopher Sullivan made up the legislative body.

The Class of 1983 as well as all of Shrewsbury High School was saddened by the loss of Mr. Thomas Maruca, a history teacher who was well-liked, respected and admired by all.

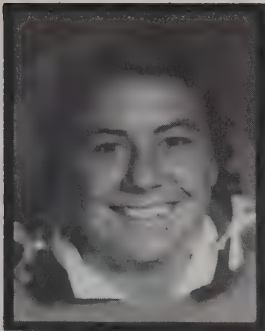

Due to the urgings and worries of Mr. Mills, Mr. McGinn, Mr. DiPilato and financial advisor Mr. Cote, we held more fund raisers. The first, unfortunately did not raise much money. Our Battle of the Bands, held in October just did not draw the crowds.

We then tried our hand at selling huge Chocolate Chip Cookies. Mr. Cote is still trying to track down unaccounted money for cookies.

We have been measured for caps and gowns and the realization that graduation is starting to sink in. Perhaps this will entice us to finally pay our class dues. We look forward to still more fundraisers, our class trip and our Senior Ball, to be held May 24, at the Sheraton-Lincoln to the music "Down East".

Our graduation on June 1 signifies the end of this phase of life, and the start of a new segment. As individuals we shall each begin our journey, on the road chose to travel. We shall be apart—living, working yet always having our common memories of the four years of hard work and fun that we shared as "the Class of '83". So to all Good Luck!

Dr. John P. Collins, Superintendent of Shrewsbury Schools, stated that the 1982-83 academic year saw the inauguration of three pilot programs in the Humanities, as well as a program called Quest for children who show academic talent in Grades 4-8. Dr. Collins confirmed that 1982-83 has seen great advances in the area of computer science both on the secondary and elementary levels. The Superintendent stated that his main concern this year was the preparation of the curriculum for the opening of the Middle School in 1983.

School Committee

Mr. Donald Grady, Chairman of the Shrewsbury School Committee has stated that the priorities of the Committee during the 1982-83 school year were to make sure that the students on the secondary level were academically prepared to meet the challenge of college or their future profession, and to insure a smooth transition of the 8th graders into the high school milieu. The School Committee Chairman also supports extra-curricular activities that will provide for all students' interests and personalities in order to enhance school spirit and create an environment conducive to providing a well-rounded academic and social education.

High School Administration

Mr. Charles Ferris
Headmaster

Headmaster Charles H. Ferris, Jr. stated that his main goal for the academic year 1982-83 and for every year is to provide an environment where students can excel in both the academic areas and in the vocational field. He believes that a sound education is imperative to the future of Shrewsbury High students, and that learning, if approached correctly, can be fun.

Mr. Joseph Montecalvo, Housemaster of the Blue House, stated that his major concern that he addressed this year was to increase the awareness of the student body to the availability of the myriad of services at SHS. Mr. Montecalvo's major goals were to offer junior and senior students the opportunity to meet their individual goals with an increased understanding of concepts and skills needed to enhance their future whether it include further education or as a productive member of society.

Mr. Joseph Montecalvo
Blue Housemaster

Mr. Kenneth Largess stated that as Housemaster of the Gold House his primary concern this year was dealing with the new Freshman class and monitoring the growth of the Sophomores. A major concern this year was to prepare for the arrival of the eighth graders at the high school in 1983 as the system reorganizes to include the Middle School.

Mr. Kenneth Largess
Gold Housemaster

Guidance

Mr. Robert Belvery
Director

Miss Patricia Galipeau
Guidance Counselor

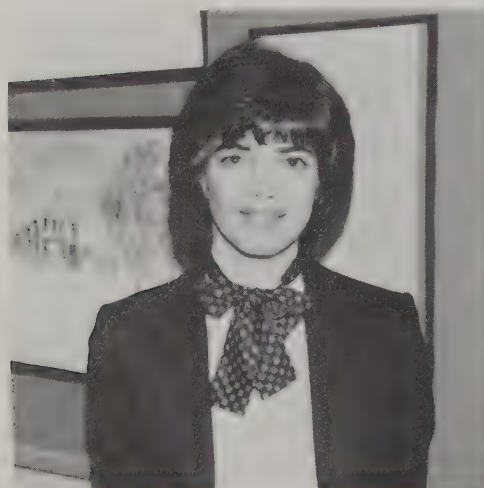

Miss Roberta Dolan
Guidance Counselor

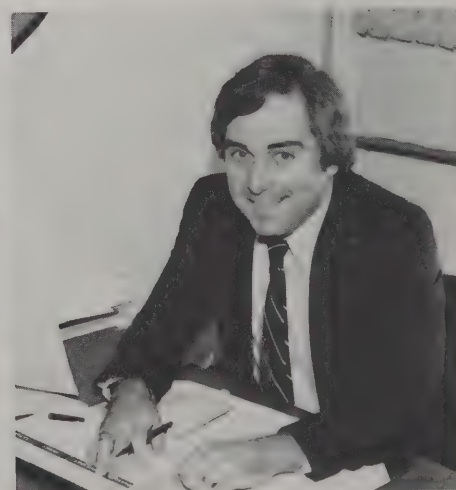

The primary goal of the high school guidance program is to assist students to deal with personal and emotional growth, academic adjustment, and vocational plans. The counselor is the main facilitator of such a program and is responsible for working with students, teachers, parents, and support personnel to enhance the learning experience within the context of the school environment.

Humanities is a new department combining English and history. The changes that have occurred during the '82-'83 school year in this department were the implementation of three pilot programs - Community Studies for students in Grade 10, American Studies combine English and U.S. History for two periods with two teachers for Grade 11, and Western Civilization which combines World Literature and World History for two periods with two teachers for students in Grade 12. The department hopes to see these pilot programs expanded during the '80's.

Math - Science

Mr. Thomas Plati
Director

In the 1980's the science and mathematics curriculum will be able to emphasize a learning-by-doing approach thanks to the new science laboratory facilities and to the new computer center. The curriculum will feature a sound progression of mathematics and science courses which will enable the student to develop his skills and knowledge to function in a highly technological society.

Mrs. Patricia Poole

Mr. Joseph Deignan
Director

In the 1980's the importance of art in the lives of students and adults will continue to be recognized. The Shrewsbury High School Art Department continues to offer a full range of courses for talented and interested students. Special instruction is available for talented seniors in preparing a portfolio for college admission. The Art Program works closely with other departments regarding posters and displays, and is also involved with many community projects including various functions of the Shrewsbury Women's Club and the Rotary Club.

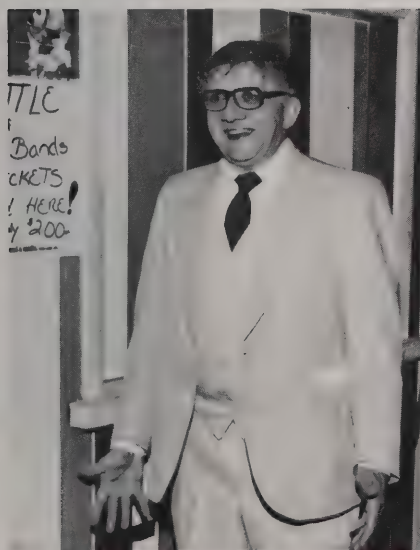

Music Department

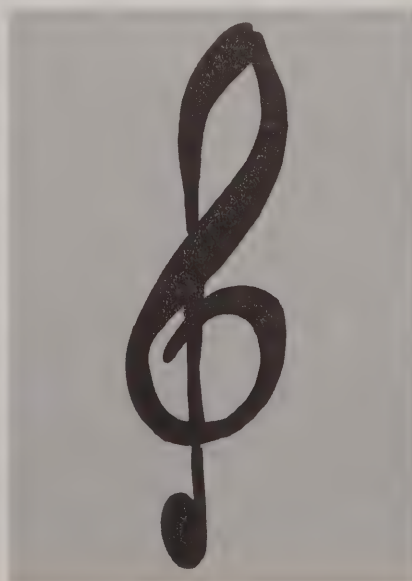

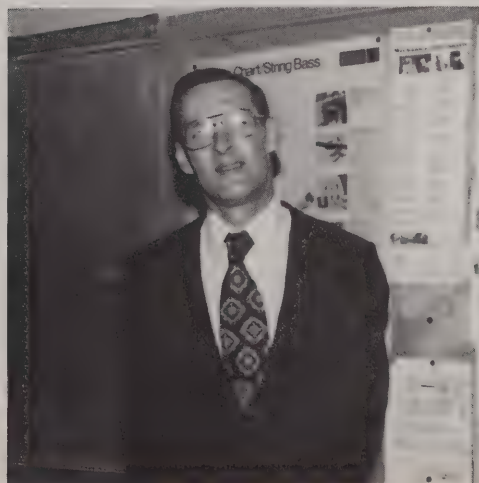

Mr. Louis Vella
Director

The primary goal of the Music Department is to assist the pupils in the music program to understand, appreciate, and respond to music. In the 80's, the Music Department will continue in its commitment to encourage participation in performance, academic study in music as a subject, and involvement in interdepartmental projects in recognition of music as a related area of the Humanities.

Mr. Jack Feldheimer

Mr. Ralph Metcalf

Physical Education

Mr. Michael Kleminich
Director

The Physical Education programs have been improved during the '82-'83 year with the new additions to the department, and increased offerings in the racket sports. Major goals for the future include preparing for the Middle School concept allowing 8th graders to compete in a sports program, and becoming NUMBER 1 in football and soccer once more.

Cafeteria Staff

In 1982-83 SHS students have been treated to many changes by the Food Service Program. Under the direction of Brian Broad a variety of appetizing lunches, which include sandwiches, soups, and the most innovative of all - New York style pretzels - are served daily. The cafeteria is open first thing in the morning for coffee, milk, and doughnuts and during all studies for snacks.

Pass Interference?

The 1982 Football Team completed their season with a 4-6 record. With the fine running of Ted Shannon, and the powerful throwing arm of Mike Kelley, the Colonials managed to be the only Midland League team to blemish Hudson's previously perfect record. This win, along with their competitive spirit, will remain in the memory of the players in the years to come.

FOOTBALLS CHEERLEADERS

The football cheerleaders, led by captain Kelley Wall, had a spirited and successful season, cheering our Colonial football team to a series of victories. Though at times it was chilly, the cheerleaders kept up the spirit and enthusiasm that is so necessary for a winning season.

FIELD HOCKEY

Although their losses exceeded their wins, the 1982-3 Field Hockey Team captained by Kate Flaherty and Linda Duprey displayed great spirit and enthusiasm.

The King and I

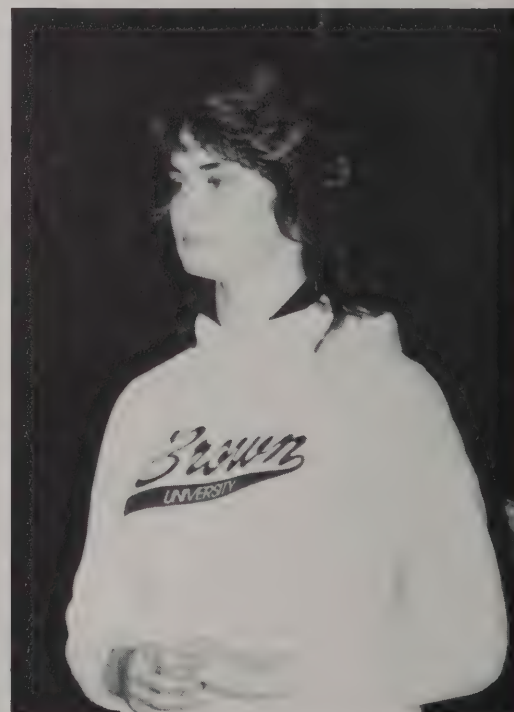

THE KING	MICHAEL MORIARTY
ANNA	JULIE UPPER
TUPTIN	JOANNE GABRIELLA
LUNTHA	PETER MILES
LADY THIANG	MARGIE KNIPE
PRINCE CHULALONGKORN	ZACK ROBBINS
LOUIS	MICHAEL FILIERE
PRINCIPAL DANCER	LISA LEONE

The King and I, written by Rodgers and Hammerstein, was the 15th annual musical production put on by Shrewsbury High School. The story of The King and I, which is based on the book Anna and the King of Siam, opens in the early 1860's when Anna Leonowens (Julie Upper) arrives from England to take the post of governess and teacher to the children of the King of Siam (Michael Moriarty). She becomes friends with Lady Thiang (Margie Knipe), the head wife, and Tuptim (Joanne Gabriella), a Burmese girl, and all the King's children. She later becomes friend and advisor to the obstinate but likeable king. After an argument, Anna plans to leave but is stopped by a note she receives from the dying king expressing his gratitude for all she has done. Touched by his gesture, she returns to the palace. As he dies, she looks around at the wives and children and realizes that her place is there with Prince Chulalongkorn (Zach Robbins) who will take over where his father left off.
